

MRS. CHILDERS IS WINNER ON AGE

For Third Time Age of Creek Woman Is Affirmed as Legal.

For the third time the courts have held that Mrs. Nora Childers Tracy became of age as to her Creek inheritance which consisted of 160 acres of land in the city of Tulsa on December 25, 1918, when she was 18 years old. The property formerly owned by Mrs. Tracy comprises the following buildings: Broadmoor, Briarwood, Children Heights and Norwell heights.

County Judge G. B. Sturgell of Osage county at Pawhuska, was the third judge to render such a decision as holding in the case of Mrs. Tracy and her husband, F. C. Tracy, against D. R. Horsley and Lee Clinton, to take from them the guardianship of the Osage property.

The case was heard on Thursday and on Friday at 4 o'clock. Judge Sturgell sustained the demurrer of the defendants and the case was thrown out of court.

Judge Sturgell held that while Mrs. Tracy became of age as to her Creek inheritance when she was 18 years of age, she was not of age as affecting her Osage inheritance and will not be according to Osage law until she becomes 21 years old on December 25, 1920. This decision continues the one made by Clinton who quit his suit.

Lee Clinton was allowed a guardian fee of $10,500 by the court, for 44 months service in looking after the Creek estate of Mrs. Tracy in Tulsa county by keeping off squatters, preventing his sale for taxes and for similar services.

Clinton's attorney represented the defendants and Judge W. L. Williams and R. C. Allan represented the plaintiffs. Besides the attorneys the following Tulsans attended the hearing: T. A. Tracy, A. M. Welch, J. W. Woodford, Lee Clinton, and Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Tracy.

Similar decisions affecting the Creek inheritance were passed by the federal board at Oklahoma City November 2 and in the Tulsa district court November 14.

Bogus Check Charged.
Information charging Walter J. Kennedy, alias "I. I. Baez," with obtaining $75 by means of a bogus check from the First National bank here May 2, was filed before Justice H. J. Gray yesterday. Kennedy is under arrest in Baltimore, Md., and will be returned to Tulsa county next week.

Much of the present unrest is caused by a lack of confidence in one another. Why should not business take the lead and make every transaction on a strictly ethical basis? This would inspire confidence and help allay the unrest. The article on page two, which outlines such a policy, is a reprint from the Merchants' Journal of Topeka, Kan., and will be of interest to every man and woman in the city. It will be good for your boy or girl to read, too.—Advt.
